

The Stations of the Cross

Seattle University Campus Ministry Chapel of St. Ignatius

If you're able, listen to Adoramus Te Christe, performed by the Chapel of St. Ignatius Choir (also on the Spotify playlist for today) to begin and end your prayer.

OPENING PRAYER

Let us pray,
Jesus Our Companion,
our hearts are sorrowful as we join with you to walk in the way of the cross.
In these days when we are unable to gather together to pray, unite us with our family of faith and with you.
As we draw nearer to your cross, help us to be close to our suffering world.
Grant we pray, that we your disciples may be strengthened to follow you in way of compassion and action that pursues the kingdom of God.
We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our Crucified King.

Amen.

FIRST STATION: JESUS IS CONDEMNED TO DEATH

Leader: We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

All: Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Leader: The governor said to them in reply, “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?” They answered, “Barabbas! ... Let [Jesus] be crucified!” (Matthew 27:21–22) (pause)

Let us pause in prayer for those who our world condemns to death by war, poverty, and gun violence, and for the more than 2,600 people on death row in this country. (pause)

God our Liberator, you have known what it means to be condemned to death by the powerful. Be with our many brothers and sisters who are refugees, prisoners, and vulnerable citizens who face death. Enfold them in your love and bring your comfort and care to all who need your healing and hope, through Christ our Lord.

Leader: Jesus Christ Crucified.

All: Have mercy on Us.

All: Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Let us pause in prayer for those who face the burden of being marginalized, particularly victims of racism, homophobia, sexism, and clericalism. (pause)

God our Shelter, be close to all those who endure daily the weight of exclusion, mockery, and systemic injustice. Heal in us and in our world the sins that divide us, and give us courage to act boldly for your reign of justice and inclusion through Christ Our Lord.

Leader: Jesus Christ Crucified.

God of Light, cast out the darkness that crowds our vision. Let us pause in prayer for all those who feel isolated and alone, particularly during the days of social distancing (pause)

God of Help, you sent your disciples out two by two, and even in your journey to the cross, remind us anew that we belong to one another, and that there are no strangers in your love. Be close to those who are isolated, particularly those who are elderly or sick, and grant that we may be instruments of connection, support, and love for our neighbors, through Christ our Lord.

God of Compassion, we are made in your true image. Be near now to the helpers, who step out of the crowd in compassion, and work tirelessly for the greater good. God our Strength, you lift up the weary and see every person as beloved. Release us from the grip of overconsumption and the idols of power and money. Transform our hearts that we may see with your wisdom and act to uphold the dignity of every life, through Christ Our Lord.

Let us pause in prayer for those who feel the weight of failure, broken dreams, and dashed plans. (pause)

God of Hope, you are close to all those who feel heartbroken as their plans and dreams seem out of reach. You have known the crushing weight of disappointment and suffering. Let us pause in prayer for all who experience homelessness, hunger, and poverty in our city and around the world. (pause)

God of the Poor, your people are crucified, trapped in painful cycles of poverty. Crucified Christ, you did not suffer alone. God our Shepherd, in these days when we are unable to gather in person to pray as community, we lift our hearts to you, united as One Body. We yearn for the day when we can celebrate Eucharist together again. Then he rolled a huge stone across the entrance to the tomb and departed. But Mary Magdalene and the other Mary remained sitting there, facing the tomb. (Mark 27:59-61) (pause)

Let us pause in prayer for those who mourn. (pause)

God our Friend. You know grief and loss, and wept outside the tomb of your friend Lazarus. In these days everyone is experiencing some loss. Help us find ways to grieve, while we cannot gather to bury the dead or mourn together, knit us together as one family in your love. While, like your disciples at the tomb, we do not know what our future holds, help us to trust in your promise of presence in our life through every trial to come, through Christ our Lord.
