

Bannan Scholarships 2020

Open application has begun for Fall 2020

Eligibility

1. Continuing or transfer student with junior or senior standing, recognized by Seattle University, in a College of Science and Engineering major by fall quarter 2020.
2. Full-time major in the College of Science and Engineering for the duration of the scholarship.
3. GPA of 3.5 or higher for previous college-level work.
4. Record of campus involvement and community service, and a commitment to participate in the Bannan Scholars Enrichment Program.

Note:

- Sullivan and Naef Scholars are not eligible.
- Post-Baccalaureate, fifth year and graduate students are not eligible.
- Both domestic and international students may apply.

SEATTLEU[®]

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

Honoring Seattle University benefactor and business leader, Thomas J. Bannan, the Bannan scholarships benefit upper-level scholars selected for academic achievement and commitment to service.

The Bannan scholarship is a renewable merit award of $6,000 per year in addition to any other financial aid received.*

Scholarships are available for both continuing and transfer students.

Application Deadlines:

Continuing Students: Feb. 14, 2020
New Transfer Students: May 15, 2020

Applications available at:
<https://www.seattleu.edu/scieng/scholarships/>

*Total financial aid awards cannot exceed tuition.